

CALIFORNIANS COMING HERE

According to the Los Angeles Express of June 14, a large party of Southern California people are coming this way. The paper has the following in regard to the matter: Arrangements are being made by Southern Pacific officials for an excursion, July 8, to Honolulu and other places of interest in Hawaii. The party will be composed of twenty-five or thirty school teachers of Southern California, conducted by Miss E. A. Ludwig, vice-principal of the Pomona high school. Passage has been arranged on the steamship Manchuria, and the Southern Pacific will use its influence to place every facility for enjoyment and information at the disposal of the voyagers.
